

Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission Will Rock Your Liquor License Renewal

By William T. Cheek III - September 23, 2014 | Alcoholic Beverage Law | Email Will Cheek

Anyone in the liquor business knows that the Tennessee ABC has been implementing big changes over the past couple of years. Keith Bell, appointed as Director of the ABC on May 21, 2013, has clearly stated his intention to “clean up” the liquor laws.

Today, we learned that renewals of liquor-by-the-drink licenses must comply with new deadlines. Failure to meet the deadlines results in termination of the liquor license and an interruption in service while applying for a new liquor license.

The ABC requires that managers sign the attached form when the ABC agent inspects for renewals. We strongly encourage all LBD license holders to pay close attention to the new deadlines.

Brings to mind the 1977 Queen anthem “We Will Rock You”

Buddy you're a boy make a big noise
Playin' in the street gonna be a big man some day
You got mud on yo' face
You big disgrace
Kickin' your can all over the place
Singin'

We will we will rock you

As we read the ABC requirement, the following must be completed two weeks before the LBD license expires:

- Renewal application filed with the ABC
- Renewal fee paid
- Tax clearance from the Tennessee Department of Revenue
- Bond clearance from the Tennessee Department of Revenue
- All citations with the ABC resolved for all stores in Tennessee

We are trying to clarify whether a new price schedule is required for renewals.

With the prospect of a prolonged interruption in service, restaurants, hotels, caterers and venues should pay close attention to renewals.
